MINISTRY OF WORKS, HOUSING & SUPPLY

(Department of Works & Housing)

New Delhi, the 17th May 1967

- G.S.R. 840.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 56 of the Delhi Development Act, 1957 (61 of 1957), read with clause (q) of sub-section (2) of that section, the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, namely:—
- 1. Short title, commencement and application.—(1) These rules may be called the Delhi Development Authority (Pension) Rules, 1967.
- (2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.
- (3) These rules shall apply to every employee in the service of the Authority on the date of the coming into force of these rules and also to all future entrants to the service of the Authority.
- 2. Application of Pension Rules.—On and from the commencement of these rules, the provisions contained in the Civil Services Regulations in so far as they relate to the grant of pension and the Central (Class IV) Service (Gratuity, Pension and Retirement) Rules, 1936, as modified by the Liberalised Pension Rules, 1950 issued by the Central Government, may be made applicable to the officers and staff of the Delhi Development Authority (hereinafter referred to in these rules as the Authority).
- 3. Employees of the Authority to exercise option.—(1) Any employee who holds a lien or a suspended lien on a permanent basis under the Authority on the date of coming into force of these rules may opt to continue to be governed by the Contributory Provident Fund Scheme as heretofore, in which case he shall not be eligible for any of the benefits under these rules.
- (2) The option shall be exercised within a period of six months from the date of coming into force of these rules or before the employee retires from service under the Authority, whichever is earlier; if no option is received from an employee within the aforesaid period, it shall be presumed that he has opted to be governed by these rules. The option once exercised shall be final.
- (3) The option shall be exercised in writing and communicated by the employee concerned to the Administrative Officer of the Authority in the case of Class III and Class IV officers and to the Accounts Officer (Establishment) in the case of Class I and Class II officers.
- (4) (a) The declaration when received from a Class III or Class IV officer shall be countersigned by the Administrative Officer and passed on to the Accounts Branch for being pasted in the service book of the officer concerned.
- (b) The declaration of Class I and Class II officer shall be entered by the Authority in a register wherein a serial number will be allotted to each declaration. A note of the option shall also be made in the Salary Audit Register simultaneously.
- (5) It is the responsibility of the officer opting for the existing Contributory Provident Fund Scheme as a whole to ensure that the receipt of this declaration is acknowledged by the Administrative Officer or the Accounts Officer, as the case may be, and that he receives an intimation that it has been duly recorded by the authority concerned.
- 4. Transfer of existing balance in the Contributory Provident Fund of the employees.—(1) In the case of all officers governed by these rules, the balance lying at their credit in the Contributory Provident Fund on the date of coming into force of these rules, representing their own contribution, together interest accrued/due as on that date, shall be transferred to the General Provident Fund account to be opened for the purpose.

- (2) The accumulated amount of the contribution by the Authority to account of the individual employee, together with interest accrued/due as on the date referred to in sub-rule (1), shall be transferred to a Pension Fund to be created for the purpose. At the close of each year the Authority shall contribute to the Pension Fund. a sum equal to the amount decided upon in consultation with the Central Government. All pension payments shall be debited to the said Fund.
- 5. Administration of General Provident Fund.—The rates of employees' contribution to the General Provident Fund, the rate of interest to be credited to the Fund accounts and other allied matters shall be governed by the General Provident Fund (Central Services) Rules, 1960.
- Investment of balance at the credit of the Pension Fund or General Provident Fund .-- Any part of the balance at the credit of the Pension Fund or the General Provient Fund, as the case may be, may be invested by the Authority in such manner as it may decide. For this purpose, a new head of account "Pension Fund Investment Account" may be opened in the accounts of the Authority to record the transactions relating to investments made and realised and the interest realised thereon.
- 7. Delegation of powers.—The authorities which would exercise powers corresconding to those exercised by the various authorities under the Central Government have been specified in the Annexure and all other powers and duties not so specified shall vest in the Authority.

Conditions for allowing transit.—Where the unaccompanied baggage of any passenger arrives at the customs station at Bombay, Delhi, Calcutta or Madras and the passenger desires that the said baggage may be cleared at any of the atoresaid customs stations, other than the customs station at which the baggage has arrived, then, on a request made in this behalf by the passenger, such baggage may be permitted to be transported to the customs station at which the passenger desires the same to be cleared, by air or by a passenger train, if—
 - (a) all arrangements are made by the passenger or his agent for the transport of such baggage from the customs station of arrival to the customs station at which he desires to have such baggage cleared, for its booking to that station and for its transport to the custom house in the place at which the station is located;
 - (b) the baggage remains under the supervision of an officer of customs deputed for the purpose except when it is under the custody of the airline or the railway authoritles, and the passenger pays for the services of the officer so deputed; and
 - (e) in the case of goods to be transported by rail, such of the goods as can be insured with the Railways are so insured.
- 3. Special Provision.—Notwithstanding anything contained in regulation 2, the Collector of Customs may, at his discretion, permit unaccompanied baggage to be transported for clearance to the Customs station at which the passenger desires to have the same cleared, by goods train, if—
 - (a) the goods are insured; and
 - (b) (i) the passenger or his agent satisfies the proper officer that the goods would not be accepted for being carried in a passenger train having regard to the size and weight thereof: or
 - (ii) the transport by passenger train would put the passenger to undue financial strain:
 - Provided that the Collector of Customs shall, whenever Quick Transit Service is available, allow the transport of goods only through that Service

Explanation.—'Quick Transit Service' means the special scheme of transit of goods consignments over the Indian Railways System in which the delivery of goods at destination is guaranteed within the stipulated time.
